(3) The Concert and Solree Danian tee of the Germanians, at Ocean Hall Thursday evening, was a very brillians affair; the Hall was crowded by the largest audience which we have ever seen assembled there. Miss Mary Hy slop was again the belie; indeed, we hegin to think that she has fairly distanced all competition, for, although there were many beautiful ladice there. who would be belies almost anywhere still she surpassed them all, and floated guily about in her glory, the acknowledged belie by all unprejudiced persons that is, by all who were not personally interested in the quentlon.

IT The first and only grand Sacre d Concert by the Germanians, of the reason, will be given at the Dining Hall of the Atlantic House, tomorrow, Sunday, evening. The programme contains some of the most exquisite Sacred Music. These Concerts, on previous years, have been very popular, and have been numerously attended. They have been induced to give this Concert at the request of a large number of visitors; all the music is of a Sacred character,and we are sure that there will be a large audience on the occasion. There are undoubtedly many now here who have never attended a Sacred Concert by the Germanians; we advise them to attend, by all means, as this is positively the only one which will be given this BRUSOD.

One enf there see the friumph and trophics of the needle-see what the highest forms of skill and taste can pro duce. There are some thirty work of set on exhibition embracing a great variety of subjects, all of which are worthy of a lengthy commendation. We have, however, room at this time to notice but one or two. Among them is "The Surrender of Mary, Queen of Scotte, to the Confederate Lords, on Carberry Hill." This piece illustrates a Inmous and thrilling tableaux in history It is here portrayed in all vividness, life, beauty, prestige of the actual event itneli. As a work of art it unites with a great painting. It is by Mrs. C. A. Stimpson, the originator and head of the Gallery. It should be seen by all. But our limits do not now permit us to mention others. It is sufficient to say that the walls of the Gallery are hung with the most elaborate and beautiful We shall take occasion, as some future time, to make further releience to them.

The exhibition is at Armory Hall, corner of Washington and West streets.

A WHISPER TO GENTLEMEN.-By Fanny Fern-Jupiter Ammon | don't I wish I was a man, just to their the masculines how to play their part in the world a little better ! In the first place there sin't a mother's son of you that has got as far as A B C in the art of making love, (and I've seen a lew abortions in that way myself, as well as the rest of the sisters.) What woman wants to be told that " her feet and eyes are pretty," or, " her form and smile bewitching ?" Just as if she didn't know all her fine points as soon as she is tall enough to peep into a looking-glass !

No, you ineffable donkey, if you must use the small coin of flattery to pay toll at the bridge of her affections, let me whisper a secret in your long cars. Compliment her upon some mental attract tion she does not possess, (if you can Jose find one) and don't wear the knees of your pet pants threadbare at her feet, trying to make her believe that she is your first love. We all know that is among the things that were, after you were out of your jacket and trowners.

What a splendiferous husband I (Fanny) should make, to be sure I had Providence only ordained it!
